JAM Session

“This election is the most important in our lifetime.” How many times have you heard that? To be honest, every election is the most important in our lifetime. Whether it’s a race for school board or mayor or governor or president, every election is important. Every one of those elections determines what direction your country will head. Every 2 – 4 years there is a chance for voters to change horses or stay the course. There is a stronger argument for staying the course and continuing on the path President Obama has taken us.

You want to have a reason to vote FOR someone. So why vote FOR Hillary Clinton?

With Hillary Clinton there is no risk of going backwards on healthcare, and in fact there is the very real possibility of expanding affordable healthcare to even more people through a public option.

And how else will she continue down the path President Obama has set us on? Let us count the ways: supports comprehensive immigration reform and has since 2007, supports raising the minimum wage to $15/hr, supports LGBT rights, reduce mandatory minimum sentences for nonviolent drug offenses, supports Dodd-Frank, wants the very rich to pay a higher tax, supports the Paris Climate Agreement to reduce greenhouse gases, supports universal pre-K, wants the nation to get a third of its electricity from renewables by 2027, wants to spend $275 billion rebuilding the nation’s crumbling infrastructure, supports net neutrality to keep the internet free and open, supports women’s access to reproductive healthcare, wants to overturn Citizens United. And on and on and on.

While some may dismiss Hillary Clinton’s sex by saying it’s not important or that she’s a well-qualified person who just happens to be a woman, having a female chief executive is important for the future of this country. Studies from around the world have shown that women together can make a difference. One woman in a board room is a token. Two women in a board room is a minority. But three women in a board room is shown to change the culture. It’s time we took that first step to changing the culture in this country. It’s time we elect Hillary Clinton President.
