A Few JOYCE Words

Those of you who missed the Super Bowl missed a really great party. The venue was right, the food was plentiful, the crowd was big and congenial and everything was comfortable and pleasant. All in all it was a truly entertaining affair. So, mark the date of the Super Bowl next year on your calendar and plan to attend. One added bonus was that many of us had the opportunity to get to know our candidates better.

Don't forget that early voting begins February 20 and ends March 2 (Texas Independence Day). Election Day is March 6. "Vote early, vote often. It's the Democratic way!!!!"

There is much to do in the coming months to get ready for the fall general election when we will open an office to support all our candidates. Each election is important, but there are three I am very interested in even though I cannot vote in them. They are State Senate District 25, Congressional Districts 21 and 23. If you live in one of these, you need to pay special attention to the candidates in the Primary - just as you do all those where we have contesting candidates.

If you are as tired of Donald Trump as I am, you are probably ready for 2020. I have reached the point that I turn off the sound whenever he is speaking. Now I hear he wants to put on a huge military parade - showing off all our military equipment - a la Russia, North Korea, etc. There must be a thousand things we can waste our taxes on instead.

to call Sen. Ted Cruz, Sen. John Cronyn, Sen. Chuck Shumer, Rep. Nancy Pelosi, Rep. Joaquin Castro, Rep. Beto O'Rourke, anyone that is irritating you, anyone that is standing strong against the Republican agenda.

Expressive T-shirts

1. Elect a Clown. Expect a circus.
2. America: founded by geniuses to be run by idiots.
3. I may have the right to remain silent ... but I don't have the ability.
4. I think we've taken this "anyone can be President" too far.
