Texas Legislature Special Session—July 8

The governor has called a Special Session of the Texas Legislature to begin July 8. The Republicans will be looking to pass the voter suppression bills that the Democrats Walk-Out prevented. All of the other objectional legislation that died in committees will probably make their appearance also. Texas must vote these people out of office in 2022.

WE'RE BANNING CRITICAL RACE THEORY, FROM NOW ON 'SLAVERY' WILL BE REFERRE AS 'UNPAID INTERNSHIPS'.

Trouble unclocked

The headline “Mystery around clause on flipping elections” (Front Page, Sunday) says it all.

If no one is willing to take responsibility for this provision — which would have overturned an election with less evidence of fraud — then Republicans must be aware of its profound consequences. Feigning innocence or ignorance is no excuse.

Democrats left the building to prevent a quorum and helped bring sunlight to Senate Bill 7.

July 17 ZOOM Meeting

REMEMBER: We as Texans have an abundance of evidence that Republicans think we are stupid, forgetful, lazy, disengaged. Friends don't let friends vote Republican. You can longer be a "one issue voter". Republicans are only concerned with power—keeping power, getting more power, keeping you from having any power or a vote.

VOTE Democratic!!
